ODESSA IN ALARM AS MUTINEERS RETURN MAN SHOT DEAD

AS NEVER WAS Fleet of Torpedo Boats Start Out to Sink Approaching Potemkine, While Guns Are Hastily Planted Along Shore -Firing Heard Off Coast.

> (Copyright, 1905, by Press Publishing Company, New York World.) (Special Cable to The Evening World.)

LONDON, July 4.—The World correspondent at Odessa cabled at noon to-day as follows: "The mutinous battle-ship Potemkine has just been reported sighted twenty-five miles off this port. There is no means of verifying the statement, but the authorities evidently believe it. "A torpedo boat left here an hour ago to meet if possible the mutinous ship and sink her. "The torpedo boat's crew is composed chiefly of officers disguised as seamen, the intention being to approach the Potemkine as friends and fellow mutineers. The ruse, however, is not expected to succeed. "In anticipation of the Potemkine's return a number of ten-inch uns have been hurriedly placed in well-masked positions on shore. "Inner bay residents at Cape Fontana, ten miles from the city, say hat at midnight a squadron was dimly sighted some distance out at sea.

"Immediately after liring was heard. "Although the report must be taken with reserve, it is stated that the official announcement that the Black Sea fleet returned to Sebastapol on Saturday, is known to be false. "A sensational report is current to-day that Admiral Kruger has committed suicide.

"Another statement is current to the effect that the crew of the battle-ship Tri Socatitelya has mutinied."

FIRST OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE ODESSA RIOTS.

Odessa as published in the Official Messenger has been in great part covered in th statemnts made in official quartrs and cabld to the Associated Press since the beginning of the outbreak. After dtailing the activity of the Socialist Revolutionary Committee in stirring up the strikers ashore and the arrival of the mutinous crew of the battleship Kniaz Potemkine at Odessa June 27, th account proceeds: "The mutiny of the warships provided the Revolutionary Committee with a good opportunity to influence the masses. The committee visited the battle-ships and assured the mutineers that the garrison at Odessa had laid down its arms, and that the whole Black Sea Suaqdron had joined hands with the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine.

"According to eyewitnesses, officers took part in the councils on board the battle-ships, especially two young cadets. The Government report then proceeds to relate the arrival of Rear-Admiral Kruger's squadron during the morning of June 30, as follows:

"As the squadron approached the Odessa pier the Kniaz Potemkine cleared for action, advanced to meet it and cut through its line. As the Kniaz Potemkine passed the mutineers received an ovation from the crews of the Georgi Pobledonosetz.

"Rear Admiral Kruger thereupon signalled the squadron to swing round and return to Sebastopol, but the crew of the Georgi Pobledonosetz prevented that vessel from following and put ashore all their officers disarmed with the exception of Lieut. Grigorieff, who blew out his brains.

"The railway freight sheds were pillaged and many rioters and looters were burned alive while intoxicated.

"Several times during the night of June 28 the mob attacked the troops and police with revolvers, but each time they were scattered by a volley from the soldiers. The number of rioters killed or wounded is not yet known, but must exceed several hundreds.

that her husband was dead. A buildt had entered his breast close to the heart.

The police were notified and made an investigation. As nearly as they could make out the shot had been fired from a roof or window opposite. The neighbors said that a lot of young men had been celebrating the Fourth of July from the roofs and the police made an effort to locate some of them. There was no doubt in their minds that the shooting was accidental, as Tonhistin could not be seen from either roof or windows.

Late this afternoon the police arrested Louis Rabinowitz, seventeen years old, on suspicion of having fired the fatal shot. He was one of the boys, according to the information in the possession of the police, who were firing pistols from the roofs at the time Tonhistin was shot. He was held in $500 ball for examination in the Essex Market Court.
